Why to choose Vidyasagar College

Vidyasagar College came into being as Metropolitan Institution in the year 1872. Vidyasagar College emerged as the first private college in the Presidency of Bengal, established at a time, when the British Colonial rulers were keen to establish their cultural dominance over the sub-continent to complement the political, social and economic hegemony on this rich land of ours. This institution aimed at disseminating higher education to the needy students at a meagre cost, without taking any aid from the colonial rulers.

It is the first college in Asia which was founded by an Indian. The 143 years voyage commenced with only 5 departments i.e. Sanskrit, English, Philosophy, Economics and History (General) having approximately 50 students only. Today we have more than 3500 students pursuing both General and Honours curricula in as many as 20 departments along with two Post Graduate departments. A creditable job is done by the institution in enhancing infrastructure and in the field of curricular and co-curricular activities.

Flexibility to the students to move from one discipline to another:
Institution provides flexibility in accordance with availability of seats and qualifying criteria as applicable for Institution. In the new \((1+1+1)\) curriculum devised by CU and effective from 2006 - 2007 session, students have to register themselves in CU with a particular subject combination, within one month from the date of admission, hence flexibility to change discipline ceases after registration.

Flexibility to pursue the programme with reference to the time frame (flexible time for completion):
Flexibility to pursue each programme within the time frame is guided by the CU norms. Each student registered under CU with a particular subject is allowed to pursue his / her studies up to 5 years from his / her date of registration, after which it gets cancelled. If however, an Honours student fails to qualify for Honours with percentage of marks less than that required to qualify Honours but enough to qualify for General, he /she may be qualified for continuing study as a General student, but the total time frame under any circumstance should not exceed 10 years.

Compulsory study of Environmental Science as prescribed by CU, all UG students in B.A./B.Sc. Honours and General Courses have to study Environmental Science as a compulsory subject (1 paper of 100 marks) to create general awareness among students about environmental problems, issues and concern.

Vidyasagar College Computer Centre is accredited to the Department of Electronics (DOEACC). Government of India, to conduct CCC, 'O' level and 'A' level courses. It provides basic computer Parent-Teacher meetings are conducted at the departmental level twice a session after mid-term test and annual test. Marks scored in assignments, tests and University examinations are recorded to track the academic performance of students. Attendance of the students is reviewed regularly. Absenteeism is tracked out which helps to identify the students who are at the risk of drop out. Those students and their parents are approached to identify the possible reason behind their absenteeism. Economically weak students are provided with facilities like scholarships and free-ships to prevent them from dropping out.

Educational tours, field visits and industrial visits are organized for the students so that they can acquire exposure to practical knowledge. Students are encouraged to show enthusiasm in practical classes for science subjects. Workshops and seminars are an integral part of the college as it influences the students to go forward in the field of knowledge. Various creative competitions like exhibition, photography, poster and model making etc. are organized to bring out the creativity in students.

Periodical tests are also held to ensure that the syllabi are properly covered and that the students improve their academic performance. With a view to supplementing the curriculum, seminars, workshops and popular lectures on various topics of academic and social interests are organized. The teachers counsel students on academic and personal issues and a grievance redressal mechanism has also become operative.

A health-care unit has been set up to cater to the health check-up of students & staff of the College through a medical practitioner. The College is thinking of implementing a health insurance for the regular students.

Sports, social and cultural functions, science club, cine club and N.S.S. are some of the student activities which deserve special mention.

Apart from prizes, scholarships and endowments, free studentship and assistance from the Students Aid Fund are offered to financially handicapped but meritorious students.

There is also an SC/ST cell providing statutory educational and financial facilities to SC/ST students.

A placement cell is very active to cater opportunity for students.

The college is proud of the fact that the first phase of construction of its third campus, situated in CL Block of Bidhannagar, is complete. Currently, two Post Graduate programmes in Zoology and Geography are run from that campus. Efforts are on to introduce more technology based and job-oriented courses.

Post Graduate Department of Geography has established a Research Centre in the academic session 2015 - 2016 and subsequently many of the interested students are pursuing their career in research works for obtaining Ph.D. Degree.

The college has been accredited by NAAC in January 2009. Department of Zoology of the college has been supported by DBT Sponsored Star College Scheme, under Ministry of Science and Technology, Govt. of India, for its excellent academic performance.

In compliance with this the College is thinking of opening Community College with diploma degree. As a whole, with its wide range of academic programmes and excellent educational facilities, the College, whose motto is ‘Wisdom, Sacrifice and Service’, is set to take on the challenges in the field of education in the twenty-first century.

The Vision

The genesis of Vidyasagar College is a momentous and happy event in the National history of India, as its parturition midwifed by none other than Pundit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar – the torch bearer of Indian Renaissance, that took place in 1872 in the form of the Metropolitan Institution.

In this backdrop he set out to form a college that was run by the natives, with no help from the ruling British in shape or form. In fact this college is the first one in India under the British yoke to be run entirely indigenously – the first attempt to free ourselves, in thought and practice, and the first cry of freedom.

In accordance with the ideals set by Pundit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar and following the motto of knowledge, sacrifice and service, the college aims to provide the best education possible to students coming from diverse backgrounds. As the founder sought to promote higher education as a part of his philanthropic social reform program, the college continues to make available special welfare and aid to backward and deprived sections of the society. It seeks to provide an environment of learning which is beyond the boundaries of caste, religion and gender. The students are exposed to diverse fields of knowledge and exposed to structured learning through the college curriculum. They are offered guidance and suggestions to help them solve problems and encouraged to acquire high academic standards. They are made aware of their moral responsibilities in a fast changing multicultural world, and strengthened to surmount the evils of irrationality and intolerance.

The Mission

The foremost mission of Pundit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar was to establish a completely national education institution in the growing metropolis of the then Calcutta. It was Vidyasagar who was able to unite the western inquisitiveness and religious search for perfection in the realm of knowledge, with the tenderness and sympathetic warmth of the Indian heart.

Situated in a place, well connected transport-wise, the college as a flourishing centre of learning, draws in students from the suburbs and far flung districts of West Bengal. Keeping in mind the rich and varied past the college hopes to inculcate among students, year after year, values of generosity and warm fellow feeling and finally to create a programme of actual human resource development, deploying social justice and ensuring equity to foster competences amongst students. It has a mission to support, all its teaching-learning programmes by values of traditional, eternal and ethical thoughts. It caters its human and other resources to the backward and the underprivileged communities as well as advantaged regions. The mission is also communicated to the students through prospectus and the first day-lecture delivered by the Principal, Head of the Department and other teachers during the "routine dictation procedure" and orientation programme. Teachers, staff and other stakeholders are made aware regarding the mission through cultural programmes, college publications, prospectus, journals (Occasional volumes). The slogan of the 125th year celebration 'To uphold the education of the nation' highlighted its mission. It was the crystallization of the vision of a visionary who believed that the education in our dependent country ought to be directed for the benevolence of the common underprivileged people.

It intends to provide a platform where during the most formative years of their lives students may learn to expound, argue and assess all social, economical, cultural and environmental issues before them. The college endeavours to produce skilled professionals who can engage in the task of improving the world around them socially and economically. The mission of the institution today is to enhance higher education, creating a dynamic environment through implementation of higher technology delivered educational opportunity in collaboration with private, public and semi-public organizations and to create a well-balanced programme of actual human resource development, deploying social justice and ensuring equal opportunities among students.

Motto: Service is our prime objective. By serving the information hungry users with precise and relevant information, we may feel elated. We shall serve the user's satisfaction to the hilt.

The auspicious inception

Vidyasagar College has been a unique institute of higher education, conceived, established and managed by Indians only during the height of British rule in India. Its object was to impart higher education to Indian students, and inculcate in them of patriotic outlook. It also sought to make higher education affordable to the economically weaker students.

Because of these noble objectives, Vidyasagar College became the cradle of the national freedom movement. A galaxy of eminent sons of India was associated with this institute either as committee members or teachers or as students.

It is a matter of unique distinction for Vidyasagar College that four undergraduate colleges, namely, Seuri Vidyasagar college, Nabadvip Vidyasagar college, Vidyasagar college for Women and Vidyasagar Evening college have taken their origin from this college. It is also worth mentioning that the Dawn Society, which was established in 1902, from which The Jadavpur University developed subsequently, operated from this college building.

Genesis

1872 Vidyasagar College Library was established. It started functioning in the main building which is at present our Geography Department at 39 Sankar Ghosh Lane Campus.

1926 After construction of Vidyasagar Hall (Hostel Building at 8, Cornwallis Street; at present 17, Bidhan Sarani Campus) library & common room was shifted to its first floor. The library & common room used to remain open from 10-45 A.M. to 9 P.M. on all working days. At that time there was almost 80 seating capacity in the reading room.

1872 Metropolitan Institute got affiliation to the C.U for First Arts (F.A.)
1879 Metropolitan Institute got affiliation to the C.U for Graduation
1882 Metropolitan Institute got affiliation to the C.U for B.L. Course
1917 Metropolitan Institute was renamed as Vidyasagar College.

As it had given birth to four other Colleges & large number of books were transferred to those independent College branches. Thus, its main collection was divided into five parts.
At present the library houses more than 55,000 books and bound volumes of journals. Beside these collections, online journals and e-books have been subscribed through N-LIST programme initiative which is funded by MHRD, Govt. of India. As an authorised user of NLIs programme, can access e-resources, which contain more than 6000 e-journals and 97000+ e-books (http://nlist.inlibnet.ac.in/)

Document on twenty three major subjects & other reference materials are available here & thus Dr. C.D. Deshmukh’s (First Chairman of University Grants Commission, 1953 ) observation on libraries as “The students form the body of the University, the administration is the head while the teachers are the soul and the Library is the heart.” is most relevant for this library.

Vastness of the Library

Total carpet area: 1140 sq. ft.
Total Collection: Near about 55000 (Books & Journals);
Computerised database partially ready : More than 33000 books are present in the database
Audio visual material (CD/ DVD/Floppy): 210

Education is a life long process, be it formal in a school, college, university or in an institute of higher learning, or informal education via self learning process. One can do life long learning. But, the prima facie aim of higher education is to impart knowledge that makes one a good citizen. Libraries of Higher Education are repositories of knowledge and form an integral part of higher education. India is a glaring example of moving towards that goal.
